

RETHINK YOUR FASHION IMPACT

EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES

- Kiss the Ground - Documentary on Netflix to understand the shift to Regenerative Agriculture (think cotton!)
- Buy Now! The Shopping Conspiracy - Documentary on Netflix to understand the impact of overconsumption
- The True Cost - Another great fashion documentary that focuses on the human aspect of the fashion industry
- Textile Exchange - a non-profit focused on the raw materials used in the fashion industry
- Fashion Revolution - Fashion activism movement with some great resources

BE A SUSTAINABLY-SAVY CONSUMER

- Look for third-party logos on hang tags to ensure certified materials like organic cotton. OEKO-TEX, for example, certifies safe chemical use in garments.
- Buy quality made clothes - avoid fast fashion like H&M, Forever 21, Shein
- Build a wardrobe to last that reflects your lifestyle

HOW TO MAKE CLOTHING LAST

- Spot clean and wash stains before they set.
- When necessary use green/eco Dry Cleaners - like OZO2USA. Take out of plastic bags after dry cleaning.
- Avoid fragrant detergents and fabric softeners linked to cancer.
- The Laundress - best online resource for how to maintain clothing and products to buy.
- Avoid using hot water in wash machine and high heat drying settings.
- De-pill woollens and cashmeres.
